ACADEMIC INFORMATION

LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION	Dutch A number of courses are offered in English in the Faculty of Applied Economics (see list).
LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS	It is essential for a successful stay as an exchange student in the Faculty of Applied Economics that students have a good command of English, oral as well as written.
CERTIFICATE STATING KNOWLEDGE OF ENGLISH	https://www.uantwerpen.be/en/education/international/international-students/exchange-students/admission/language-requirements/
LANGUAGE COURSES	Detailed information can be found at https://www.uantwerpen.be/en/education/from-choosing-a-programme-to-graduat/information-for/international-students/exchange-students/study-information/language-courses/
COURSES OFFERED IN ENGLISH	A list of courses offered in English and course descriptions and requirements can be found on the website: https://www.uantwerpen.be/en/faculties/faculty-of-applied-economics/studying-and-education/international/exchange-students/ Bachelor courses It is recommended that bachelor students have completed successfully at least 120 ECTS credits at the home university since most of the bachelor courses offered in English are at an advanced level. Master courses Only students who completed at least 150 ECTS credits successfully at the home university are allowed to register to master courses, provided they meet the requirements set for each course.
ECTS LEARNING AGREEMENT	To be submitted together with the application. Provisionally approved Learning Agreements (including remarks) will be returned to students half of July at the latest. Upon arrival students may have to revise the learning agreement. There is a two week add/drop period. Confirmation of the study programme will take place two weeks after the start of the semester.
REGISTRATION TO COURSES	Students select courses using the SisA-selfservice for students. This can only be done electronically, after logging in at the SisA-selfservice. Login details (name and password) will be provided upon registration at University of Antwerpen. Detailed information can be found on http://sisastudent.uantwerpen.be/ where a user guide for students can be consulted.
EXAMINATIONS	Students are normally allowed to take an examination for a course twice a year. First session examinations are held at the end of each semester . Students are registered for the semester examinations automatically. Transcript of records will be sent out: 1 st semester students: end of February at the latest

2nd semester and full year students: half of July at the latest
The examination regulations are available on the university's website (translation in English)

<https://www.uantwerpen.be/en/education/studying/university-career/education-examination-regulation/>

 Students who start with classes at the home university beginning of January are allowed to sit the written examinations at the home university:*

- on request of the home university coordinator
- provided the exam will be organised at the home university at the same date and same time the exam is scheduled in Antwerpen and proctoring will be guaranteed

Second session examinations (i.e. resits) take place at the end of August - beginning of September. Students who wish to take resit examinations have to register in SisA. Detailed information on the procedure will be provided in a letter attached to the transcript of records (TOR).
