3. APPLICATION AND ACADEMICS

Nomination requirements

Partner universities must select and officially nominate students for academic exchange who have passed all first-year subjects and who are able and willing to:

- Abide by UIC's academic calendar, rules, & regulations
- Comply with applicable visa/immigration policies & local laws
- Ensure complete medical coverage for their entire stay at UIC
- Have a sufficient level of Spanish/English/Catalan to take courses and exams in those languages (where specified)
- Health Sciences students should provide immunization records

Visiting students don't have to be nominated, but should fulfill the requirements mentioned above.

Nomination and application deadlines

September-January (semester 1) / whole academic year
15 June
January-June (semester 2)
15 November

Nomination and application procedures

The partner institution should send a nomination email to exchange.bcn@uic.es or exchange.scu@uic.es according to the student's study field (see 1. Contacts). We should receive the following information:

- Student's full name
- Student's email (that s/he actively uses)
- Period of studies (semester 1 or 2 / whole academic year)
- Faculty of UIC Barcelona where the student wishes to study

Students will receive detailed instructions by email. Students need to do the following:

- 1. Create an online profile / application in the Relint platform
- 2. Send in the required documents by email, depending on the exchange programme / study field

Learning Agreement

Students have to create their Learning Agreements in the Relint platform.

We will inform students about course timetables and academic calendar during June-July. Information on courses can be found in Fact Sheets of each faculty (sent to students by email).

Learning Agreement and changes have to be submitted according to the faculty's deadlines.

The main contact for Learning Agreement is the academic coordinator (contacts in faculty Fact Sheets).

Study regulations

Assistance to classes is obligatory. Students must present a justification in case of absence. Too many absences may result in failing the course.
Examination dates cannot be changed unless a justification is presented to the faculty in advance.
Students may extend their stay by making a formal request in advance to International Relations who will pass it on to the faculty in question for assesment.

Acceptance Letter

Students will receive an Acceptance Letter once they have completed their Relint profile and sent in the required documents. The Letter will be sent by email, and the original can be sent to the student's university by post when requested.

Transcript of Records

A Transcript of Records will be issued in February for semester 1 students and in late July for annual / semester 2 students. The exact dates may vary. We will send a signed PDF by email to the students, and the original by post to the home university.

Grading

10	A+	Matricula de Honor / First-Class Honours
