

The Alan Mulally
Leadership in Engineering Scholarship
APPLY NOW!

Ford
Blue Oval
Scholars

Receive $10,000 US and get connected with the Ford Blue Oval Scholars database and initiative to maintain an ongoing relationship with Ford and other high-qualified scholars.

You are

- in your 2nd or 3rd year of your Bachelor's or in the 1st year of your Master's degree with very good grades (GPA Germany 1.5 or better or performance among the top 5% of your peers (Dean's List))
- pursue a major related to automotive engineering (mechanical, electrical or computer science engineering, ...)
- have strong communication skills (i.e., English proficient)
- and hold leadership roles in academic or community based- settings (e.g., on-campus organizations, community volunteer work, other engineering related activities, ...)

Apply now!

Send your meaningful application exclusively via e-mail in one pdf-document to Christoph Hackstein including:

- your CV (in English) and transcript of records
- 1 recommendation letter from a faculty member
- 1-page essay (400-500 words) describing your interest in Automotive Engineering, previous leadership role(s) held and why you are the best candidate for this scholarship

For more information

Submissions accepted until
Friday, March 10th, 2023 (eob)